VOL. II. GLENDALE, LOS ANGELES COUNTY, CAL., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1906. NO. 18

Demands 46 and 49 were reported upon favorably by finance committee.

A communication from the directors of the Glendale Sanitarium and Manager W. Ray Simpson requesting the board to have the grading done on J street between Third and Fourth, and also that inasmuch as the electric light poles are now in the center of the street and will have to be removed before the grading can be done, that the same be erected in the alley west of J street. The matter of grading J street was referred to public works committee, and the street superintendent was instructed to have electric light poles placed in alley west of J street.

Communication from Edgar Leavitt regarding broken window in city hall was received and placed on file.

GUESTS DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED.

Mrs. Edgar W. Pack, who is in her happiest mood when dispensing the hospitality of her home, entertained about seventy ladies most delightfully on Tuesday afternoon, under the grandly spreading oaks and pepper trees at her present residence at the Jones homestead. This adjoins the grounds upon which Mr. and Mrs. Pack are erecting a handsome cottage containing substantial and attractive stone work in the architectural scheme and being fitted with modern conveniences and luxuries, all of which was appreciated by the guests as they enjoyed looking through the structure, which is rapidly nearing completion.

The occasion being Mrs. Pack's birthday anniversary, a large and beautiful British flag, presented by Mr. Pack to Mrs. Pack upon the day, suspended with an American flag of like size, from the overarching branches of the grand old trees, formed a fitting and interesting spot where Mrs. Pack received the congratulations of her arriving guests upon the occasion of her birthday anniversary and also as recently elected president of the Tuesday Afternoon Club. Mrs. Pack was assisted by Mrs. Guentnardt, the newly-elected club secretary. Mr Pack and Mr. Guenthardt were the only gentlemen present, and were quite the heroes of the day, and Mr. Pack sustained his reputation as a splendid dispenser of hospitality.

A variety of outdoor sports were provided which, under the shade of the trees, were much enjoyed by many, while others scattered about on the improvised seats were happy in conversation with congenial company. Choice and appetizing refreshments were served to the large company and the affair was one of the most informally elaborate and enjoyable ones which Glendale has witnessed.

FOR A PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Ed. Glendale News: Being a comparatively newcomer in this vicinity and being interested in all that goes to make up advanced civilization, I have been interested in several communications in regard to the Glendale library. I observed what one of the members of the library board stated about the lack of funds to conduct the library, as those in charge would like and it occurred to me that this library should be a public institution run by the city government instead of being dependent upon the arduous efforts of the interested ladies having it in charge.

Smaller places than Glendale have public libraries and but a very small sum raised by the city would be felt by no one and make the institution one of the desirable features of our growing city. TAXPAYER.

GIVES THE TAXPAYERS A SQUARE DEAL.

Ben E. Ward is going to be retained as guardian of the people's interests in the office of County Assessor. Mr. Ward is a Republican, but he has kept his office clean of politics and has certainly given the taxpayers a "square deal" irrespective of political beliefs or financial standing. The people are going to show their good sense by re-electing Mr. Ward to look after their interests. The office of assessor is certainly a most important one, and the people should make no mistake in electing an honest, fearless and independent man to fill this place. That's Ben E. Ward. Work for him and vote for him.

DRY GOODS STORE ABOUT COMPLETES THE LIST.

Noble Brothers have opened up a dry goods, notion and gents' furnishings store in the new Ayers block, just two doors north of the Bank of Glendale and their large and select stock of goods are neatly arranged on the shelves in the commodious store room, where they can be inspected by the public.

The coming to Glendale of an up-to-date store of this character gives to our people the opportunity of purchasing all of their necessaries without going to Los Angeles. Glendale now has grocery stores, a drug store, a dry goods store, meat markets, restaurants, furniture store, hotel, livery barn, blacksmith shop, baker's supplies, laundry wagons, hardware store, plumbing shop, sanitarium, skating rink, ice cream and confectionery store, some real estate agencies, electrical fixture shop, high school, grammar school, boarding houses, two lumber yards, sheet metal works, incubator factory, seed store, two banks, a newspaper, several physicians, carpenters, architects, building contractors, cement contractors, a lawyer, a board of city trustees, electric lights, gas on the way, two telephone companies, feed and fuel yard, harness shop, shoe shop, tailor shop, four packing houses, a planing mill, four churches and everything that goes to make a real good, live little city.

Mr. A. B. Noble is from Humboldt, Kansas, and his brother, Mr. S. F. Noble, is from Los Angeles, where he has been with the H. Jenne Grocery Co., for some time. He was formerly on the road for the Schilling Co. of San Francisco for twelve or fifteen years. The people of Glendale having the future welfare of the town in view should give the home institutions the preference when making purchases, and if all citizens do this, Glendale will continue its healthy growth.

CRAZY MAN AT LARGE.

Brute Makes Attempt to Assault Women.

The News has been reliably informed that upon two or three occasions, during the past two weeks, a crazy Italian who lives on a small vineyard just north of the Eagle Rock-Glendale wagon road and just east of the Glendale city limits, has attempted to assault women who were walking along the street, and in one instance he is said to have gone to a private residence and chased the lady of the house off the premises. This fellow usually carries a shotgun and is accompanied by two or three dogs.

Steps should be taken at once to apprehend this beast and if he is crazy, as his actions would indicate, he should be put somewhere where he would not be a menace to our people.

Rink to Close for Improvements

The Glendale Skating Rink will close Monday, September 3rd. for improvements and will reopen Saturday evening Sept. 8th. Manager.

Charles Damrell's large five room cottage which was built by Grant & Andrews is completed and Mr. and Mrs. Damrell are moving in. They will be comfortably settled in their new home within a week.

M. E. CHURCH NOTES

An organ has been bougnt and will be installed this week and will be used for the first time next Sabbath morning.

Seventy of our Sabbath school went to East Lake Park Wednesday.

Our prayer meetings are better attended now than they have been in the history of the church. If you are not attending, you are missing a means of real helpfulness. All are welcome.

Dedication, September 16th. Three services on that day. Eleven, three-thirty and eight oclock.

Decision day in our church Sept. 9th. Service will be led by Rev. J. W. Ellis.

Mrs. Norton went on Wednesday to visit for a short time with our son Ed and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Holland of Milton, Iowa, spent the day with us Monday. Mr. Holland has been leader of the church choir for 35 years at Milton.

The Annual Conference will be held at Riverside, September 26th. Our benevolences should all be in next week.

Pleasant Outing

Mrs. D. A. Talbott returned home Tuesday evening from a visit to the noted Reheart ranch. The trip was made by way of Newhall grade throngh Piru and Hopper canyon.

They report the road as being exceedingly rough but when their destination was reached the complete rest more than paid for the trouble Mr. and Mrs. Talbott went on the kind invitation of Mr. Charles Reheart, owner of the I,800 acre stock ranch.

Three weeks were spent at the ranch with the finest hunting and all the fresh fruit heart could wish.

The party returned by way of Santa Paula, through Oxnard. They stayed several days at Huneme where they enjoyed excellent fishing. The trip was made in a camp wagon starting on the 30th of July. Although the party were more than delighted with the Reheart ranch they were only too glad to get back to Glendale.

OUR NEXT SHERIFF.

W. A. Hammel, who is without a flaw, received the Republican nomination for sheriff, and we do not believe that there is a better man in the county for this place. Mr. Hammell will not take orders from any man or faction, and the people of Los Angeles county will have one less official to be uneasy about when Hammel is elected and installed in office. When the taxpayers have business with the sheriff during Hammel's term of office they need have no fear but what they will receive every consideration and courtesy due them.

Mr. Dair, who recently opened a restaurant in the Ayers block sold out last week to Mrs. Kate L. Yantis. Mrs. Yantis has had many years of experience in the hotel and restaurant business and if our people expect to have a good restaurant in Glendale they should support the efforts of this worthy lady. Mrs. Yantis will make a specialty of serving chicken dinners on Sunday. See the menu for tomorrow in this issue of the News.

Have you seen the Irish-American on top of the Watson block?

Mrs. C. C. Norton and family spent Wednesday with friends at the beach.

Mrs. David M. aHckman expects to leave soon for an extended visit among friends in the East.

At the Presbyterian church the subject of the morning sermon will be "The Bride of Christ."

The Rev. Mr. Blackburn, who was indisposed for a few days, is again enjoying his usual health.

Glendale Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., will give a smoker at their hall on Monday evening next. Refreshments and a good time generally. Come out and enjoy yourself.

How long will Glendale countenance the distributing of advertising bills on the Sabbath-day, during church hours. We are anxious to be up-to-date; but this exceeds the limit.

Conductor Wellman, who has a run on the Glendale division of the L. A. Interurban railroad, has just completed a large, modern home, corner Ninth street and Glendale avenue.

Miss Helen Burland of Visalia, Cal., Miss Edith Williams of Youngstown, O., and Mr. Henry Bassingwaite of Bay City, Mich., were guests of Mrs. G. E. Williams during the past week.

There is a movement on foot to establish a kindergarten in the library room. Glendale is proud of its little ones. It is hoped that the ladies who have this in charge will meet with success.

It was a jolly vacation that was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blackburn and son, Robert Jr., down at old San Diego. They return in good spirits and perfect health to their ain counˈtrie.

That Mrs. Baldwin is slowly but surely improving in health will be read with pleasure by her friends. She has spent the last two months in bed at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Richard Dell Lamson, Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cornelius Anderssen have moved into their beautiful bungalow home on the corner of Fourth and C streets. This is most pleasing news to their many friends, who will expect to find the latch string always out.

Mrs. M. Greenwood of Sixth street, and son Fred, have returned from La Crescenta, where they have been for some time for the latter's health. While at the "Terrace" Mrs. Greenwood entertained for a few days Mrs. Joseph Kirkby of Lomita Park.

The worst "knockers" in town are the lower limbs of the shade trees which adorn(?) our streets. Why?

Miss M. Alice Smith of Honolulu, Hawaii, and Mrs. G. E. Williams of Glendale were guests of Mrs. Curtis Wells of Redlands, at Long Beach last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Smith and son Clarence, have returned from a visit of a week at Catalina. During their absence they visited Mr. Smith's sister, Mrs. Mason of Clear Water.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Guenthardt, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Temple and Miss Georgia Steck their guest, are now stationed at Camp Skidoo, a beautiful spot near Griffith Park on the bank of the Los Angeles river.

Mrs. M. O. Ryan and daughter Evelyn, Mrs. Joseph Kirkby and Miss Margaret Kirkby, and Mrs. M. V. Colburn with Miss Bernice Williams and Miss Helen Burland of Visalia, were a happy party to "Romeo and Julfet" at the Burbank Saturday.

D. R. Beer's new house of eight rooms has been completed by Grant & Andrews and Mr. and Mrs. Beers have moved in and are now comfortably housed in their new home, which is one of the most convienent in Glendale and is thoroughly modern in every respect.

T. F. Henderson has opened up a tailoring, cleaning, pressing, repairing and dyeing shop on Glendale avenue between Third and Fourth streets. Mr. Henderson is a man of experience in his business, and the work turned out by him is first-class in every respect and there is no reason why his business should not prosper in Glendale.

Mr. D. W. MacDonald has sold most of his property on Second street east of A, reserving 150 feet for a building site. Mr. MacDonald proposes making a trip to his old home in Nova Scotia to visit his mother, who is 84 years of age, and whom he has not seen for ten years. He will take his family with him, but expects to return to Glendale after his visit.

Fred Greenwood has returned to the "Terrace" above La Crescenta and his brother Barz has gone with him. Both have been great sufferers from asthma before coming to California from Pittsburg, Pa. This is the first attack since coming to Glendale. The height of the "Terrace" is about 2400 feet above sea level, and both of the patients experienced immediate relief on their reaching that elevation.

Rev. W. F. Stone, who has charge of the Calvary Baptist church, has rented Miss Carrie Cornwall's house and together with his estimable wife will move into same next week. Rev. Stone is a most able minister and the Calvary congregation and the Glendale people in general are to be congratulated upon having Mr. and Mrs. Stone become residents here and workers in the Master's vineyard in Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Bear entertained at dinner Thursday evening. The guests were: Mrs. Irene Talbott, Mrs. T. W. Tundate, Miss Laura Tundate and Mr. Carl Van Ness.

The Rosalie Fantasia from Miss Simplicity for which MissesChandler, Ayers, Seaman and Kirkby; Messrs. Merrill, Seaman, Bancroft and Hezmalhalch, with Mr. Hezmalhalch as soloist and Mrs. Claude Compton accompanist are being rehearsed at the residence of Mrs. Harvey Jr. under the direction of Mrs. White. This promises to be one of the principal features of the Tom Thumb Wedding performance. There will be music and specialties by Tropico, Glendale and Los Angeles talent.

The Tom Thumb and Commodore Nutt Wedding at G. A. R. Hall Thursday and Friday nights, September 6th and 7th, under the direction of Claudia Hazen White, the celebrated dramatic expressionist of New York city, for rhe benefit of N. P. Banks W. R. C., will be the event of the season.

Under Mrs. White's tuition la petite 400 of Tropico and Glendale are being made into drawing room belles and beaux which would grace a presentation at court.

Miss Hickman of Tropico, is to be congratulated upon securing the services of so noted an exponent of dramatic art as Claudia Hazen White, who is well and favorably known from Maine to California and from the Gulf to Canada.

The press of the country is as one voice in its praise of her artistic powers. We quote the following from the New York Herald:

"Claudia Hazen White is a talented and finished artist, and those who attended her entertainments are enthusiastic in praise of her artistic merit, fine stage presence, perfect enunciation, graceful gestures and bearing —all the requisites of success in her profession."

Last Saturday being the anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Ayers, it was celebrated by a family gathering. Mrs. Harris, who has been confined to her house for so long a time, was able to be present through the kindness of her neighbor, Mr. McIntyre, in offering her conveyance in his automobile. Mrs. Harris describes her first sensation of the auto even when starting at low speed, as seeming so rapid as to take away her sight. Mr. McIntyre took the party about town a short ride, and Mrs. Harris was able to realize the rapid growth of Glendale while she has been "shut in."

J. H. Taylor, who has conducted a general merchandise business on San Fernando Road and city limits for the past four years found that his business had grown to such proportions that it necessitated better facilities for accommodating same; therefore Mr. Taylor has incorporated under the name of the Taylor Milling Co. for $75,000 under the laws of California and is now situated so that he can accommodate the public and as he buys in large quantities he is enabled to give his customers a much lower rate than the old and smaller plan of doing business. The company's business is located on the San Fernando Road between the Southern Pacific and Salt Lake railroads and given the advantage of the shipping and switching facilities of both these roads.

One of the pleasant social events of the past week was a daintily appointed and unique shirt waist luncheon given at the beautiful home of Mrs. Clarke H. Temple on Orange street, Glendale, in honor of Miss Georgia Steck of Berkeley, her house guest. On entering the dining room a pleasant picture of the dainty table gleaming with its cut glass and silver, resplendent with its color scheme of red and white, was presented to the guests who found their places by pretty hand-colored place cards. After the repast the seventh course, consisting of nuts in which were placed questions relating to the shirtwaist girl, came as a surprise. The guests then repaired to the living room to describe this same shirtwaist girl on dainty score cards containing sketches of same. They also found twelve little maidens patiently waiting new dresses and materials for same which kept them busy the remainder of the afternoon. All being finished, a pleasant picture was presented to the judges who found it very difficult to choose the winner. Mrs. C. B. Guenthardt won the first prize, a beautiful Japanese cup and saucer, Mrs. D. W. Hunt being awarded the second, a pretty brass vase. The guests included: Mesdames Chase, Pack, Fraley, Anderssen, Church, Taylor, Barnard, Hunt, Guenthardt, Pitcher, Tarr of Los Angeles, Misses Steck and Whitaker.

F. R. SINCLAIR,
Street Superintendent of the City of Glendale.

The pastor of the Presbyterian church was not the Rev. Mr. Ward who was arrested for killing deer. He has returned from his vacation at "The Terrace," La Crescenta, and declares that nothing larger than rabbits were killed, and those were killed by his son Lawrence, who kept the party supplied with meat. Vacation passed pleasantly in rambles into the mountains and canons, with plenty of food and sleep.

Mrs. E. M. McClure and children have returned home from a week's outing at Long Beach.

SCHOOLS ARE IN GOOD HANDS.

We are glad to say that there is very slight prospect of a change being made in the superintendency of the county schools, inasmuch as Mr. Mark Keppel was re-nominated for that office at the convention at Venice last week. Mr. Keppel's renomination was a just tribute for his honesty, hard work and ability, and there is no question but he will be re-elected.

The schools are in good hands and it is most important that a good man be kept at the head of the schools. As long as Keppel is retained as superintendent, politics will be kept out of the schools. Mr. Keppel should receive the support of all parties, irrespective of politics.

OFF FOR A GOOD TIME.

Two automobile loads of pleasure-seekers will leave Tropico tomorrow (Sunday) for San Francisco and way points, and they expect to be gone for two weeks.

C. G. Wilkinson and H. H. Davenport will take the party in their Moline autos and Mr. Wilkinson, J. A. Logan, John Hobbs and Chas. Jennings will go in Mr. Wilkinson's machine; H. H. Davenport, Wm. Borthick, Ray Borthick and Chas. Mosher will occupy Mr. Davenport's machine.

Nothing short of an earthquake will mar the pleasure of this trip and Wilkinson and Davenport are the boys to carry the crowd safely through.

Gas for Glendale.

R. A. Blackburn, local representative for the Southern California Gas Circuit Company, has just received a car load of gas pipe which is to be used in the new system to be installed in Glendale. Mr. Blackburn says work will be commenced at once in laying pipe and that residents of Glendale will be able to secure gas within a reasonable period of time. The securing of gas for fuel and illuminating purposes in Glendale is bound to give a great impetus to the town's growth and our citizens should lend every encouragement to the early completion of the system.

WET GOODS BY KEKIL.

"I am the best friend that the San Fernando Valley has."—Mulholland. Now won't that jar you? Friends in wolf clothing we don't care for, but he has had his life threatened, you know. And of course, you would not harm a friend.

Look out for consolidation. Perhaps after you have paid your good money to get the Owens River here Los Angeles (Mulholland and Gibbs) will find where some Spanish king said that the outlying country can have the consolidation but Los Angeles gets all the water.

Don't miss an opportunity to tell our city friends about Mulholland, Matthews and Gibbs—anything helps.

It's a shame that the people of Los Angeles are only able to have one side of the story. Mulholland's interviews picture us a bad lot.

We've got Mulholland feeling shaky. Keep him going. He's the fellow we are after.

Where was Gibbs when the tide went out?

Public opinion will do the work.

LET THE PEOPLE KNOW.

In the fight for their lives and homes by the ranchers of the San Fernando Valley some very interesting history of old Spanish and Mexican days is being brought out that the average man or woman of these bustling times does not think of. Yet it is none the less interesting, and the following taken from the columns of the Glendale News of July 28, will be found of absorbing interest and well worth a permanent place upon the book shelf of every home in Pasadena and vicinity. Since the water we all need is the life of all lands of Southern California, and since the fight of the ranchers of the San Fernando Valley has a direct bearing upon the water rights of all other portions of this state, it is felt that no apology is needed for occupying the space taken here for this very interesting bit of local history. Read and preserve it for future reference.—Pasadena Roadrunner.

Then follows in full the article "Pueblo Water Right—What Old Records Show," which was first published in The News of July 28.

Mr. Glover is deserving of the thanks of every resident and property owner of this valley for the interest he has taken in our cause. Mr. Glover has well said that "the fight of the ranchers of the San Fernando Valley has a direct bearing upon the water rights of all other portions of this state." The publicity that is being given this outrage, which Mulholland, Matthews and the gang that is behind them, are trying to perpetrate upon the property owners of this valley, is beginning to have an effect, as Mr. Mulholland is becoming desperate and is using the columns of the Los Angeles Express in an endeavor to scare the Los Angeles people into the belief that the city is facing a water famine. The hope of the people in this valley lies in their ability to inform the Los Angeles taxpayers of the true condition of the water situation, and when the voters and taxpayers of the city become convinced of the fact that there are several of its pumping plants lying idle and many acres of water-bearing land belonging to the city which lies undeveloped in this valley, such prevaricators as Mulholland and his gang will have to step down and out.

The recent visit of the editors to this valley is having its beneficial effect in that the public is getting a better insight into the true state of affairs.

Our people should not allow the matter to rest, but continue the publication of facts regarding the water situation and publish these facts so that the taxpayers of Los Angeles may be informed.

The Glendale News has been fighting this unjust and uncalled for misrepresentation of the people and water conditions of this fair valley by the city's hirelings, and expects to continue the fight until these falsifiers are shown up in their true light to the people they misrepresent.

NOYES' DECISION.

SUPREME COURT SUSTAINS THE RIVERSIDE JUDGE.

Ruling on an Important Water Question That Will Affect Every County in Southern California.

The supreme court of California has affirmed the decision of Judge Noyes of Riverside county in the case of William Newport et al. against the Temescal Water Company. The history of the case is substantially as follows:

In 1901 the Temescal Water Company bought 160 acres of water bearing land in the Perris valley, and in 1903 it bought 3341 acres, additional. Wells were sunk, pipe lines laid, the water was pumped and carried forty miles to lands in the vicinity of Corona. This development was undertaken and carried out by an outlay of some $500,000.

William Newport and others, who were farming in the Perris valley, found the water plane under their lands going down so that crops could not be raised as formerly without irrigation and so that the cost of pumping would be greatly increased. Relying on the supreme court's decision in the Katz vs. Walkinshaw case, which forbade the taking of water out of one basin into another, they began suit to enjoin the Temescal Water Company from pumping water in the Perris valley and carrying it to Corona. The suit was bitterly contested with a large array of legal talent on each side, and was decided by Judge Noyes in favor of the defendant, the Temescal Water Company.

In his decision Judge Noyes invoked the doctrine of laches in setting aside the Katz-Walkinshaw principle, holding that, inasmuch as plaintiffs were not only cognizant of the intentions of defendants but actually invited them to enter upon the work of development, they could not now fairly ask the court to deprive defendants of the benefit of their large investment. The judge also held that, while the owners of the lands overlying the water-bearing strata had paramount rights to as much of the water under said lands as was necessary, such rights were limited to the water that was put to beneficial use; that there was a great abundance of water under the surface of that valley for all; and that the increased cost of pumping from a lower level was so trifling as to be disregarded. The argument of the trial court was artfully presented and the decision, while not directly antagonistic to the Katz-Walkinshaw decision, virtually overturned it.

The supreme court by affirming Judge Noyes's decision has practically reversed itself and pleased the holders of dry lands who are reaching out for water and are robbing the more favored sections. It holds in effect that water may be pumped from an underground supply in one section and conveyed to another and even remote section for distribution and use; that water may be taken from one watershed and supplied to another where it is needed. It is not apparent that this decision will benefit the lower users of water from the streams, but quite the reverse. It looks, thus early, as though it will be a standing invitation to owners of high mesa lands in the upper courses of the streams to water such lands, by pumping or otherwise, from the streams, whether said lands are within the watersheds of the streams or not.

It might be well for the lower users to study the probable effect of this decision upon their own water supply before rejoicing very much over it.

Because the editor of the local paper advocates municipal and local improvements; because he tries to get business men and other influential citizens to put forth more thought and energy for the good of the community; and because he is continually seeking through the columns of his paper to enthuse life and energy into the community; we say, that because he does all of this and takes so much interest in public improvement, there is no reason that he should be accused of doing so for personal gain. The village paper is, and always has been the pulse of the public if you please, and through its channels is felt the throb of general sentiment of public interests.—Downey Dispatch.
